

Melissa Gardner

www.melissagardnerart.com

Melissa Gardner is an adolescent psychotherapist turned author/illustrator who now lives in the rainy forest outside Eugene, Oregon. Her style is a blend of traditional and digital media, with a focus on natural beauty, tender emotions, and a dash of magic. When she's not drawing, she's often snuggling with her three dogs, hanging out with her family, or coming up with recipes that remind her of childhood.
